

Finally, you don't have to spend hours going through a maze of sailing schedules.

Introducing Customizable Schedules – a new, powerful online tool that helps you readily access sailing schedules for multiple location pairs of your choice, in a single report. You can even save report settings and request for regular reports to be sent to you and your colleagues or business partners via e-mail, in your preferred file format. You'll be amazed how Customizable Schedules simplifies and takes the hassle out of forward planning your shipments.

No other carrier offers such a comprehensive, useful online tool. APL Customizable Schedules is just another reason why shipping with APL is simply the better choice. Why not use it to your advantage?

The APL Advantage

Takes care of administrative tasks so you focus on planning

- Streamlines the entire process of retrieving and compiling sailing schedules information, consuming less time, paper and data entry - so you can stay focused on planning
- Comprehensive customizable information of up to 20 global location pairs of your choice are presented in a single report for easy reference
- Your report settings can be saved for future use, thus minimizing re-keying of data

Facilitates your business and planning needs

- Highly customizable report settings ensure that you get information relevant to you only
- Hyperlinks on Web-based reports give you direct access to detailed routing, vessel & location information, service maps and online booking
- Schedule reports can be generated, downloaded and printed within minutes at HomePort® anytime, anywhere - providing timely reference when quick decision-making is required
- Different file formats (HTML, PDF and MS Excel) cater to your different needs
- Auto-generated reports can be scheduled to be delivered to you via e-mail according to your planning cycle
- You can nominate your colleagues and/or business partners to receive the schedules report at the same time you do

More tools available at HomePort® - the Web portal for all your shipping needs

- Besides Customizable Schedules, Point-to-Point Schedules and Region-to-Region Schedules are also available on Schedules Channel at HomePort® - putting at your disposal a comprehensive suite of tools to facilitate your planning
