Dear Mr Beatens

AUTHORISED ECONOMIC OPERATOR (AEO) – GRANTING OF AEO STATUS

I refer to your application for AEO status dated March 4th 2008 .

I am pleased to inform you that your application for AEO status has been successful and I enclose your AEO certificate number GB AEOF 00024/08.

Your certificate type is Full (F), which entitles you to benefits under security and safety and customs simplifications (effective from 1 July 2009).

The effective date of your certificate is March 2nd 2009 and your certificate number should be entered on all customs documentation on or after that date (see Notice 117 – Authorised Economic Operators).

As a certificate holder you are responsible for maintaining the standards applicable to certification and for informing HMRC of changes in your business that would impact your status. These include:

- Changes of business or trading name;
- Changes of premises;
- Significant alterations in business patterns such as changing the types of goods you deal in or changes in processing or storage procedures;
- Significant changes to your record keeping systems.

and any other significant changes to those activities declared on your application.

Information is available in large print, audio and Braille formats.
Type Talk service prefix number – 18001

Senior manager role: Michael McGourty Assistant Director

APL.CO.PTE.Ltdgranting AEO

Your certificate will be reviewed in December 2012. At that time you may be contacted by HMRC for them to ensure that the criteria for certification are still being met.

This letter and the AEO certificate to which it refers must be kept in a safe place and made available at the request of any Officer of Revenue and Customs. The use of this certificate is subject to the conditions laid down in Council Regulation (EEC) No. 2913/92 establishing the Community Customs Code and Commission Regulation (EEC) No. 2454/93 which lays down provisions for its implementation.

This certificate is subject to the right of HM Revenue and Customs to vary it. If you have any queries regarding your application, please contact the office named at the head of this letter

If you do not agree with the decision in this letter, you can ask for a formal Departmental review. Your request should be in writing setting out the reasons why you do not agree with the decision. It should be sent within 45 days of the date of this letter. Please write to:
