APL Co. Pte Ltd – Change of Name with effect from 1 December 2020

Dear Sir / Madam

With effect from 1 December 2020, the name of APL Co. Pte Ltd shall be changed to CMA CGM Asia Shipping Pte. Ltd. The name change does not affect the company's business, shareholder structure, management, contact details, or agreements it has entered into.

APL Co. Pte Ltd has been part of the CMA CGM Group since 2016. The name change is in line with the developments that the CMA CGM Group has been making across its trade lanes and among its carrier brands over the last 3 years. The changes will mark a new phase of growth for the CMA CGM Group as a global shipping and logistics leader.

Since only the company name changes, but all other legal aspects remain unchanged, please consider this letter as an amendment to any agreement that are currently in place between yourselves and APL Co. Pte Ltd. We would be grateful if you could ensure that all contact details and communication systems are updated within your organisation to reflect our company's new name with effect from 1 December 2020.

Please do not hesitate to get in touch with your regular contact person in case you have any further questions.

Yours sincerely

Stéphane COURQUIN
Chief Executive Officer
